

Computer Network Architect (Houston, TX):

Monitor and enhance server performance through cloud and traditional platforms. Configure and manage VLANs, RPVST+, Inter-VLAN routing, and LAN security. Implement redundancy in BGP networks, MD5 authentication, and STP attack mitigation. Install and replace hospital routers, switches, and related hardware. Configure Site-to-Site IPsec VPN tunnels using Cisco ASA 5500 series, load balancing with F5 LTM, and Spanning Tree Protocol (STP) on switches. Enforce web filtering for internet compliance and enhanced network security measures. Maintain network topology. Configure and monitor AWS resources for optimal performance and security. Research and implement software products for healthcare and network solutions. Provide guidance to junior team members, coordinating with vendors, and overseeing network operations and security.

Requires: Master's degree in Computer Science

Wage Rate: $111114 per annum.

Direct Resumes: HR Manager, 1960 Physicians Associates Inc 837 Cypress Creek Pkwy, Ste. #105, Houston, TX 77090.